Oh, oh, oh, oh. (It's the runners)
Oh, oh, oh, oh. Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, eah.

Now lemme' tell you boy,
i'm a little something more to deal with.
Don't play me like a toy, better come with the realness. Aye.
Don't wanna' test me out, don't wanna hit this ending road.
You're gonna love when i come around,
you've never seen it like this before.

Better be coming with the feeling now. (aye, aye.)
This the way thats makin' all your dreams go right.
This right here's a classic, you gon' have to have it.
If we get it running we gon' party till the sun comes up.

If you're in love make sure you got enough,
on your marks get ready set, oh we're going,
all through the night. (through the night)
come on let's get it up and running, up and running.
i want you to take me out there,
come on let's get it up and running,
party till the morning sun.

Oh, oh, oh, oh. (hey) Oh, oh, oh, oh.

Now listen to me closely, if you want me to roll your way.
See theres a place to go baby boo, cause i handle
slightly differently, hey.
This ain't no laughing key situation, you gotta push
the right button to start.

And if you find the right combination, you're gonna' go pretty far.

Better be coming with the feeling now. (aye, aye.)
This the way thats makin' all your dreams go right.
This right here's a classic, you gon' have to have it.

If we get it running we gon' party till the sun comes up.

If you're in love make sure you got enough,
on your marks get ready set, oh we're going,
all through the night. (through the night)
come on let's get it up and running, up and running.
i want you to take me out there,
come on let's get it up and running,

party till the morning sun.

So take me to your favorite spot, baby show me all the things that you got.
Cause i'm everything you're ready for.

Come on let's get it up and running, up and running, up and running, up.
Come on let's get it up and running, party till the sun comes up.

If you're in love make sure you got enough, (Oh)
on your marks get ready set, oh we're going,
oh, all through the night. (through the night)
come on let's get it up and running, up and running.
i want you to take me out there,
come on let's get it up and running,
party till the morning sun.
