You got me where you want me
But, I ain't all there.
My head is gone, my brain is fried,
An' I'm standing right here.

Ah ah ah ah...

You can touch me if you wanna, oh
I don't really care
But I have ruined everything that I ever loved.

Ah ah ah ah...

I guess we have to play
The cards we've been dealt.
And I guess I got nothing,
But whatever happens happens...
'Cause my life is falling apart,
Or is it getting better, I don't know.

Ah ah ah ah...

Well you can kiss me again if you want,
I don't mind.
Well you can kiss me again if you want,
Oh that'd be fine.

Ah ah ah ah...
