got used to being alone that i hate the pain of a broken heart that love thing i tried it, over and over til i got tired and i never wanted to keep a smile up, can't deny it was make-up to cover up all of the pain i felt inside but you came in and made everything right you came into my life, my heart's brand new and now i give my all, my all to you it's that kind of love, it's that kind of love, love.. cos no matter if i'm down i can count on you and i'll be crazy if i ever lose you no one comes close to ya, there'll be no one like ya no one else in the world cos there's no one like you you came and kissed my tears away and now there's nothing left to say you came in and saved me and now i'm ready for love now i look to you without a fear in my heart it's guarantee that we will never part cos you love me and i love you there's no way that i will ever leave no

you came into my life, my heart's brand new

no one comes close to ya, there'll be no one like ya

i've swim an ocean and i've climbed a mountain top i've fought the battles and lost it all cos nothing returned why not give it up i thought to myself til there was you i got another chance with you

you came into my life, my heart's brand new
no one comes close to ya, there'll be no one like ya

no one comes close to ya, there'll be no one like ya
