Amber eyes and amber ring
Perfume merchant and a sailor
Wrap me in your salty skin
Tangled boughs of wine and splendor

We've got our wild days
And nights of love that last forever
We've got chandeliers and silver

Sweep me up in golden dust
Dancing with the moon of summer
Stars surround the both of us
Warm me with the glowing embers

Carried by the wind
And tumbling waves that pull us under (pause)
We've got our wild days
And nights of love that last forever
We've got chandeliers and silver
ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
The rose's thorn
The winter's cold
We bend but we don't break

(x4)
Diamonds to dust
Where do the days go
Love is worth more than silver and gold

Carried by the wind
And tumbling waves that pull us under
We've got our wild days
And nights of love that last forever
We've got chandeliers and silver

Wild and consuming fire
Melting icy seas of slumber
Hold me as your hearts desire
This love is my greatest hunger
