Woke up.. feeling strange.
Different somehow.. kind of insane.
A brand new day
is on the way.
But something wrong
is coming along.

(chorus)
And then you say
how can we be best friends.
We never hang.
Are we coming to an end?
But you and I we made a promise.
To never let go, never let go.
And we both know
that there's no one else.

Maybe our opinions are just too different.

Or maybe we've just grown apart.
But all of a sudden we stopped talking.
And when we spoke our words were sharp.
How did this happen?
No one knows.
We can't just leave.
Stay on your toes (and hold on)

(chorus)

So never let go..
No, never let go (ohhh)
Cuz no one else will take your place in my heart.
Let's not make this a broken... 'ship.
