Intro:

Baby stay with me...
Let me know that you never leave...
You don't have to be alone,
Take my heart and let it at home.
Cause I can't promise,
I'd be waiting
If your mine,
I'd be changin'
Don't let this opportunity
Just lingle like we're meant to be.

Pre-Chorus:

Stay with me take my hand.
Cause together we can stand!
I'm on my way
Both wings outstretched
If you don't come with me...

Chorus:

I know you'll regret it
You'll never forget it
Just how good we had it
So baby don't let this go!
You gotta start believing
Well here's we gonna make it
Whatever your life wondering
Well you can have the whole world in your hands!

Verse 1:

So much love inside these arms
By tommorrow it could be gone
And I can see our future in your eyes
Trust your heart and ease your mind!
So don't you worry about too much
Cause I love you!(Hush)
All that matters in the end is
We've got love and understand it

Pre-Chorus:

Stay with me take my hand

And together we can stand
I'm on my way
Both wings outstretched
Come with me cause I know!

Chorus:

I know you'll regret it
You'll never forget it
Just how good we had it
So baby don't let this go!
You gotta start believing
Well here's we gonna make it
Whatever your life wondering
Well you can have the whole world in your hands!

Bridge:

If you have second thoughts
I would understand...
Sometimes it's too much too soon
And we don't even have a plan...
All and all inside
What'chu feel for me is true?
So matter what you choose to do
It will always be...
Me and You!

Outro:

Cause I can't promise
I'd be waiting
If your mine,
I'd be changin'
Don't let this opportunity
Just lingle like we're meant to be.
Stay with me,
Take my hand.
Cause together we can stand!
I'm on my way,
Both wings outstretched
If you don't come with me...

Ending Chorus:

I know you'll regret it
You'll never forget it
Just how good we had it
So baby don't let this go!
You gotta start believing
Well here's we gonna make it
Whatever your life wondering
Well you can have the whole world in your hands!
(Well you can have the whole world in your hands!)
(Well you can have the whole world in your hands!)
