If your waiting for the perfect time
To try something you've never tried
Time will past you by
And you won't do it.

Save nothing for a rainy day
You blink and it will be too late
Why not start right now
And just get to it.

Shut out the voice inside your head
That says stay in the shadows

Burn so bright
That the dream you had inside lights up the night
Burn so bright
That the angels have to cover up their eyes
Dare to be bold
Dare to be great
Leave a little love all over the place
It's your life
Burn so bright

Why talk when you can sing out loud
Why hide when you can draw a crowd
You deserve a future with no limits

Take baby steps until you are done
Don't decide when all the fun
Put a memory in every minute

With every excuse you come up with
You'll miss a door that opens

Burn so bright
That the dream you had inside lights up the night
Burn so bright
That the angels have to cover up their eyes
Dare to be bold
Dare to be great
Leave a little love all over the place

It's your life
Burn so bright

Turn up that voice inside your head
That says your here for a reason

Burn so bright
That the dream you had inside
Lights up the night
Burn so bright
That the angels have to cover up their eyes
Dare to be bold
Dare to be great
Leave a little love all over the place
It's your life
Burn so bright
Burn so bright
Burn so bright
