I'll never be as wild as I could be
And never as smart as I should be
But I'll let love in so that's worth something

And once in a while I can risk it
And every now and then I don't fix it
There's something charming in being broken
It's so disarming and unspoken

Won't play by any rules
I'm going with the night
I play it all so cool
Won't yield any one inside

And what about you? Are you with me?
Is there some place else you need to be?
'Cause I've been waiting for such a long time
And all this patience it's made me lose my mind

Won't play by any rules
I'm going with the night
I play it all so cool
Won't yield any one inside
Won't yield any one inside
Won't yield any one inside

There's no way I won't go
There's nothing I need to know

Won't play by any rules
I'm going with the night
I play it all so cool
Won't yield any one inside

Won't play by any rules
I'm going with the night
I play it all so cool
Won't yield any one inside

Won't yield any one inside
I won't yield any one inside
I won't yield any one in

I won't yield any one inside
