You may be my hero
Armored head to toe
You may be the one
Whose age would never show

Say you will be mine
At least until sunrise
Hold me in your arms and love me...

Please don't call me sweet
Don't let these hearts meet
May never love again
Oh, my dear sweet friend

Say you will be mine
At least until sunrise
Hold me in your arms and love me...

Mark me up and throw me down
Close your eyes...

Don't believe
Contradicting words surround everything that i do
Everything.. that i do

You may rescue me
I'll make myself free
I'll put up the wall
You won't exist at all

Say you will be mine
At least until sunrise
Hold me in your arms and love me...

Mark me up and throw me down
Close your eyes..
Don't believe
CONtradicting words surround everything that i do
Everything... that i do
