You invade a lot of my thoughts thinking you've got me where you want me guess again maybe you forgot You've been replaced and I've been set free So lets keep it short and sweet hello goodbye
hello goodbye
don't have time to waste I'm over you found someone new there's nothing left to say
hello goodbye
hello goodbye
you come around trying to bring me down selling your lies but I'm not buying cause deep inside I've come alive my eyes wide open, feel like I'm flying So don't make me repeat CHORUS
So when we meet again
