"Human Being"

To all listening that can hear me sing
Just like you I'm a human being
I've been at the top fell down like a rock
Spinning out of control in a world that never stops
Trying to survive just to stay alive
It's inevitable that we live and die
But the story doesn't end right there
No it goes on for me
Cause I'm a human being
Broken - Captured
Chosen - Raptured
Close the chapter to who I was yesterday
Unchained - Set free
Raised up - Redeemed
Take a good look at what you see
I'm a Human Being changed
When I think about how it started out
I've come a long way since the day that I was found
Look at who I am look at where I stand
Why be 50 cent when you can be a hundred grand
Theres a plan for you all you gotta do
Is open up your eyes you can see it too
Take a good look in the mirror
You'll be amazed to see
That your a human being
