I'm fine you know, I'm in a strange place
Lost in a head that's not my own again
Appear to be a statue of something good,
When I go up I go too high
And coming down, I'm like an ash
Who knows where I'll land,
Before I go far away
Could you hold me close and maybe then I'll stay, oh

(chorus)

Feels like I've opened the gates to lonely heaven
Seems I'll be living inside this lonely heaven

I'm fine you know, just changed in many ways
Oh watch the steam rise off a broken heart
I've never felt such sympathy,
In ways they come and go and I shut down because it's easier that way,
Before I go too far
Could you hold me close
and maybe then I'll stay, oh

(chorus)

Feels like I've opened the gates to lonely heaven
Seems I'll be living inside this lonely heaven
Lonely heaven

There's a way that I'll survive,
I'll jolt it down so you can hear how my story ends,
Before I go too far
Could you love me
Maybe then you'll understand, oh

(chorus)

Feels like I've opened the gates to lonely heaven
Seems I'll be living inside this lonely heaven
Lonely heaven

I've opened the gates to lonely heaven
