I am a poet for Lord's sake
And I never speak in vain
Christ it's like I'll never suffer
Never lose the things I've gained

I am a poet and I hide behind the words
Trembling loud
While the rest have all been purged
My arms wrap around
Oh what I know

It's the simplest things
Never wanted to be
Only part of the piece
Only part of what's me

It's the simplest things
Never wanted to be
Only part of the piece

And here she is again
How her face is always framed
A mirror in the parlour and the passion
Just cannot be chained
I am a poet and I know
I won't talk so loud only to you
While the streets are filled with sound
I'm breakin' em down
That's what I do

It's the simplest things
Never wanted to be
Only part of the piece
Only part of what's me
It's the simplest things
Never wanted to be
Only part of the piece
Only part of what's me
It's the simplest things
Never wanted to be
Only part of the piece

Only part of what's me
