You used to be my king
Cut me out a golden heart and threw it in the sea
And oh look at what's left of you and me
Just passing ships with ruggage left from all our misery
Ohh Ohh
I want a revelry
Fight goes on with victory while I watch in my defeat
And I surrender all that's left of me
But you and I will never cease if we cannot agree

I gave you my love and you lost it
You gave me our robe and you threw it away

Ohh ohh there's nothing more to say
Ohh ohh ohhhhhh

There's nothing left to feel
When all I see is rivalry across this battlefield
And we have taken all that we can be
But black and white and dark as night is all we've ever been

And I've tried asking time for the healing
But you and I could never see pass the pain

Ohh ohh there's nothing more to say
Ohh ohh ohhhh

And nothing could become of us
When were too wrong two hearts too tough
The flag has drawn our armor off
This fight has gone on long enough

Ohh ohhh there's nothing more to say
Ohh ohh we'll always be this way
Ohh ohh there's nothing more to say
Ohh ohhhhhh
Ohh ohh there's nothing more to say
Ohhh
