3:15

All the wrongs are never right.
It's all just instinct without foresight.

5:22

Drown in judgements, kill the nights.
Trust within your souls, burn so bright.

8:35

Burn so bright. x4

16:20

How often you told me
my main trouble was years
wrapped tightly above a bottomless pit.
Centered around your weakness
your nightmares became mine.
Running with sheppards, always the fool.
Wrapped around my weakness.

27:13

I cried when you cried.
I'll die when you die.
You don't deserve it.
You won't deny it.

33:35

I cried when you cried.
I'll die when you die.
and you don't deserve it
But you won't deny it.
So I cried when you cried.
I'll die when you die.
