I could tear your walls down as I chip at who you are now
Don't you
You ever let me know how
And I could break your heart down as I tell you that you've burned out
Don't you
You want to let it go
Oh I might scream and shout now as I feel you pressing down on
Don't you
You walk upon my heels now
You walk on
And I should call your soul out but I feel I've gained control now
Don't you
You tell me what to do as you
You twist and turn your thoughts around
Oh, this road it's getting long
Stones, don't you
They're getting harder and you're slipping slowly further
You're slipping slowly further
You're slipping further than you've been before
But I don't need to know how
And I don't need to blow out your candle
It's only burning at both ends
But your moods they wash away
No need to dose your eyes today
You just take your
Your deeper breath you're going
Your deeper breath you're going
Under this time
It's under this time
You, you've got to go now
Won't you, you've got to go not
And don't you, you know it
Don't you, you know it
You've got to go now
Don't you, you've gotta go now
