Page after page, day after day Dead people's lives are on display Caught by surprise, shot in the eyes Man makes death a living and finally dies

What have I done?

Good to his friends, comes to an end He's part of the history tour

What have I done?

See them all come alive In front of your eyes

- to the man who made {help here, please...}
- but you thought you'd go for all- {help here, please...}

Invented the jet, won all his bets Surely this one isn't dead yet? Time is on my side While I decide how to get there

See them all come alive In front of your eyes Dead people's lives

See them all come alive In front of your eyes See them all come alive In front of your eyes Dead people's lives
