Like horses wearing their masks, always facing
forward - to what end or reward?
It's what katie wears, oh, I feel disgust inside - I really need some discipline.
Consumed again argh! it's not communicate, it's what
liz says. oh! and my cocaine. I read the columns yeh - it tells me who's the latest honeydear.

Like horses shot in the knees, it's just easy meat - TOP SHOP's budding sex.
It's what Sienna says, oh, I feel pointless inside - I really need that discipline...
Consumed again argh! it's not communicate, it's what
liz says. oh! and my cocaine. I read the columns yeh - it tells me who's the latest honeydear
For me to envy...

They conceive it and they know you'll buy it.
And give (yourself) it all away.
