Too bored to live and too young to die
You get too tall, I'll cut you down to size
TV fear sells brand new cars
My love lives with my guitar

It's easy to feel that free
When you know what you want to be

Stand up, your time is come back around
Stand up, there's nothing holding you down
Walk on with your feet off the ground
How they gonna stop you now?
And how they gonna stop you now?

So learn to love or learn to lie
Just don't sit and watch the world go by
TV fear sells brand new cars
My love lives with my guitar

It's easy to feel that free
When you know what you want to be

Stand up, your time is come back around
Stand up, there's nothing holding you down
Walk on with your feet off the ground
And how they gonna stop you now?
How they gonna stop you now?
And how they gonna stop you now?
Never gonna stop you now

I said, stand up, don't sit back down
I said, stand up, don't sit back down

They got the mouth, we got the soul
Come on now, honey, won't ya let it roll?
You got to move, don't hang around
Come on now, honey, can you hear me now?

Can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now?

Can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now?
Stand up, stand up

Stand up, your time is come back around
Stand up, there's nothing holding you down
Walk on with your feet off the ground
How they gonna stop you now?
I said, how they gonna stop you now?
How they gonna stop you now?
