Nic Cester - Tomorrow

Nothing good shall easily pass
What is fought for we will sculpt to last

Anything if incomplete
Like origami flexing from the heat

Folded by another's hand
Bent beyond ability to land

All I knew is upside down
I've found my feet but I've lost my ground
But all I've known I've just begun
It made me stand (tomorrow I will run)

Been defined from what we lack
A history to follow back
But all I've known not just begun
It made me stand
Tomorrow I will run

No example of no one's dream
A shoulder tap while eyes are on the screen

No one sees no one can catch
A juggernaut that's carved itself in glass

All I knew is upside down
I've found my feet but I've lost my ground
All I've known has just begun
It made me stand (tomorrow I will run)

Been defined by what we lack
A history to follow back
All I've known not just begun
It made me stand
Tomorrow I will run

All I knew is upside down
I've found my feet but lost my ground

But all I've known has just begun
It made me stand (tomorrow I will run)

Been defined by what we lack
A history to follow back
All I've known not just begun
It made me stand
Tomorrow I will... run
