He said, "I'm so much better"
Blue font and big bold letters
I would be lying if I said I didn't care

And no, oh, oh, one ever got away from
Oh, oh, oh, all the chemicals
All the chemicals fused together

Hey now
Come sit a little bit closer
Just say how
You've got the blisters that are on your skin

Wait now
I said a little bit closer
I wanna see them clearly
Yeah, I wanna see just where you've been

These halls don't try to flatter
When filled with living matter
I would be lying if I said I liked them then

And all, oh, oh, of you expected I would grow
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, with all my chemicals
All my chemicals confused together

Hey now
Come sit a little bit closer
Just say how
You've got the blisters that are on your skin

Wait now
I said a little bit closer
I wanna see them clearly
Yeah, I wanna see just where you've been

Hey now
Come sit a little bit closer
Just say how
You've got the blisters that are on your skin

Wait now

I said a little bit closer
I wanna see them clearly
Yeah, I wanna see just where you've been

Hey now
Come sit a little bit closer
Just say how
You've got the blisters that are on your skin

Wait now
I said a little bit closer
I wanna see them clearly
Yeah, I wanna see just where you've been
