“The Art” Lyrics

03. Lightning Beautiful

You want to shock me fine, it's suitable bolts combined, I'm delusional Almost went flat line, It's critical
You're striking my mind,
Lightning beautiful
It's like the sun comes down, down, down, down
The
trees come down, down, down, down A flash of light with no sound,
sound, sound, sound
If your lightning is love, why don't you strike me
now
You're a hard act to follow
(Follow)
You're lightning in a bottle
(Bottle)
Might be too much to swallow (Swallow)
If your lightning is love, why don't you strike me now
Now, now, now
You're lightning
beautiful
Why don't you strike me
down, down, down, down
You're lighting
beautiful
Why don't you strike
me down
You escape every time, it's incredible (Yeah it is)
Your look is divine, its impeccable
You're a giant eye with a world view
My soul illuminates right in front of you
It's like the sun
comes down, down, down, down
The trees
come down, down, down,
down
A flash of light with no sound, sound, sound, sound
If your lightning is love, why don't you strike me
now
You're a hard act to follow
(Follow)
(Bottle)
(Swallow)
strike me now
Now, now, now

You're lightning beautiful
Why don't you strike
me down, down, down,
down
You're lighting beautiful
Why
don't you strike me down Lightning
strikes make me so horny, lighting up my atmosphere
Lightning strikes
make me so horny, lighting up my atmosphere Lightning strikes make me so horny, lighting up my atmosphere
atmosphere
Down, down, down, down
Why don't you strike me
Down, down, down, down
Why don't you strike
me
Why don't you strike
me
Why don't you strike me now
Now, now, now

You're lightning beautiful
Why don't you strike
me down, down, down,
down
You're lighting beautiful
Why
don't you strike me down
Why don't you strike me
Why don't you strike me down, down, down,
down
Why don't you strike
me
Why don't you strike me
Why don't you strike me down, down, down, down
