Did I, did I, did I?
Did I, did I, did I feel this way back then?

Did you wake up to the sound of pouring rain?
Fadin' days of blue rush past your eyes
Would you lose yourself in someone else's vain?
Or should you shout your mind out when the loss began?

Bring it on

High until you washed it all away, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Well, yeah, yeah, it's all the same
I realized it through this song, I sing out loud and call your name
Do you feel I'm only someone you could never ever know?
In it all you'll find, you see, you're not that far from me
So walk and hold your head up high, a stone's throw

I feel right now like I felt way back then
The center of my life, I lost it all Never ever knew how much I'd loved, until you left, you're gone
Fell right now like I was chasing you the same way

High until you washed it all away, yeah, yeah, yeah
Well, yeah, yeah it's all the same
I realized it through this song, sing out loud and call
your name
Do you feel the only someone you could never ever
know?
In it all you'll find, you see, you're not that far from me
To walk and hold your head up high, a stone's throw

Oh, I would like this stone to roll

High until I washed it all away, yeah, yeah, yeah
Oh, yeah, yeah, it's all the same

I realized it through this song, sing out loud and call
your name
Do you feel the only someone you could never ever
know?
In it all you'll find, you see, you're not that far from me
To walk and hold your head up high, a stone's throw

You're just a stone's throw away
I never knew how much I'd loved, until you're gone Never knew how much I'd love, until you're gone away You're gone away, 'til you're gone away
'Til you're gone away

I feel right now like I felt way back then
The center of my life I lost it Lost it all away, lost it all away, lost it all away
Lost it all away, lost it all away, lost it all away

Never knew how much I'd loved, until you're gone
Never knew how much I'd loved, until you're gone
Never knew how much I'd loved, until you're gone
Never knew how much I'd loved, until you're gone away
'Til you're gone away, until you're gone away
'Til you're gone away

A stone's throw away, a stone's throw away
A stone's throw away, a stone's throw away
Yeah, yeah, yeah
