You glance away and my heart misfires
Something is burning inside me, it's taking me higher
I stand to break, from bending so far
I've gone from rooted to maybe, I don't want to restart Why can't I speak? Why can't I relate?
You've got me spinning and spinning and spinning
My knees giving way

So you
So you said I was the one you'd wait a lifetime for You held your breathe, you bet your life but somehow still unsure
Come on baby love me
Come on baby love me
Come on baby love me
Like I wanna love you

Repeat

I held your hand through all your rainy days
Somehow lover, I'm still standing in your rain
And when your days get shorter, and your mind it wanders,
And when your breath gets weaker, I'm still gonna love you

Why can't I speak, why can't I just say You've got me turning and turning and turning, so lost in your ways.

Chorus

Like I wanna touch you.
