How people tell you lies
I thought you felt the same
Somehow we thought you'd be there
Help him beat me down, again
It's all I know

So you want from me some things we never see
Left alone to fill time
So empty all your thoughts now, turn around your hate
Take a look at me, hang on security

It's all been overated, this life you live, it's not your own
There's no one here to help you
It's all been unadulterated lies, they'll keep telling you
They'll keep telling you, how I wanna

Raise everything it's on my own
Nothing special lately, nothing special maybe
Time to feel it on your own
Time you want to take control

So you've told them all, I thought you looked the same
Do you need this light to help you see it clearer again?
Closer to my letter, open up for some to breed
You're sharper these days, toll on security

It's all been overated, this life you live, it's not your own
There's no one here to help you
And it's all been unadulterated lies, they'll keep telling you
They'll keep telling you, how I wanna

Raise it everything it's on my own
Nothing special lately, nothing special maybe
Time to feel it on your own
Time you want to take control
No now fall, call for me to fall for

Everybody wants to tell you something
Everybody wants to fill you, nothing
Everybody wants to break you out now
Everybody wants to be take you out now

And everybody wants to tell you
And everybody wants to fill you in Control, control

Do you think it's time to tell them?
Yes I think it's time that you shove them a little harder
Yes I think it's time that you pushed them over
Don't you think it's time you told them stop?

Raise it on my own no, no, time to fill your souless lately
Everybody wants to tell you something
Everybody wants to bring you something
And everybody wants to take you
And everybdoy wants to bring you down

Time you feel it in your own, time you let them take control
Time to fill their needs, so empty all your thoughts, my friend
And everybody wants to break you
And everybody wants to you push you around
