The minstrel in the gallery looked down upon the Smiling faces.
He met the gazes --- observed the spaces between the Old men's cackle.
He brewed a song of love and hatred --- oblique
Suggestions --- and he waited.
He polarized the pumpkin-eaters --- static-humming
Panel-beaters --- freshly day-glow'd factory cheaters
(salaried and collar-scrubbing).
He titillated men-of-action --- belly warming, hands
Still rubbing on the parts they never mention.
He pacified the nappy-suffering, infant-bleating
One-line jokers --- T.V. documentary makers
(overfed and undertakers).
Sunday paper backgammon players --- family-scarred
And women-haters.
Then he called the band down to the stage and he Looked at all the friends he'd made.

The minstrel in the gallery looked down on the Rabbit-run.
And threw away his looking-glass - saw his face in Everyone.
