If you want me to spell it out
You ripped my heart out I'm not coming
Right back to you and your superficial girl crowd
Because i'm very proud, loudly I'll confess my anger
And madness, frustration, looks like I'm back to masturbation
Oh well it's worth it
Its worth it
Its worth it

We don't goto bed
We just have sex

If you disagree I'll make it clear,
I don't want you here, in fact I want to see you Never, never, never....did I mention never again, times ten
Understand? it's not an option that you have, it's fact
Its fun

We don't goto bed
We just have sex
I'm not suppose to care
We're not even friends

If you disappear I'll say it loud, in fact I'll shout it out
You're one forever, you and your super ditzzy girl crowd Look what I found on the ground to replace your Faces, fake faces, a can of mace says, that you'll never Be back in this place again
Damn, I can breathe again
I can breathe again
Well I can breathe

We don't goto bed
We just have sex
I'm not suppose to care
We're not even friends
We're not even friends
We're not even friends
