Death is present the candle has burned out the scythe is raised he's eager to reap the extreme unction prepares for the last night but God knows where you will rest

Dark are the veils of death To sail the seas of eternal damnation to cross the desert of woe and despair or drink the chalice of divine ambrosia

Your life will be put to the test

Dark are the veils of death

Enter the great adventure just wait and see

Heaven or hell will call you now when you spirit is free

Chorus:

Where can your salvation be now when your spirit is free

where can your salvation be

now when your spirit is free

Fading light

disappearing night

tells you darkness is to come

Ancient rites

the death-mass itself has never revealed where you will go

You will enter realms where angels fear to tread open hidden door within your mind

Sail with Charon sail with destiny accept your death and make it your own choice
