"The End Of Pain"

Visit "The End Of Pain" on MotoLyrics.com

In the wintercold I see the blood clotting slowly in the snow Unsung heroes cry in the night may they die before dawn Broken banners mourn fallen crowns grieving swords lay all around As the swansong touches the mountainside unseeing eyes look at you Can't you hear it
hear the sorrows veil
Oh, can't you see it
the newborn day
Impaled hearts welcome the end of pain black blood releasing warrior souls Vultures circle 'round the fields of grief another graveyard, another tale
Can't you hear it
hear the sorrows veil
the newborn day
