Just when I had tied into myself
I didn't want nobody
You picked me
Just when I decided love it'self was just a made up story
You made it real to me
Tell me what the chances are of you and me together forever
It's something that I swear I've done before

And I won't let nothing happen to this feeling
Of love and cuddle with me
This is what I was created for

For eternity i made my mind up
And I can't believe I finally found ya
my one true love
I'm living De Ja Vu
You've been in my dreams so many times
I can't believe this is my life now
You're my true love
I'm living De Ja Vu

Although I've known you for years
It always feels like the first time I see you
When I open up my door
I wish I could make time stand still
To feel your arms around me baby
Maybe for a minute or two more

When you look into my eyes and make me feel like im the only person here in the entire world
And I, I know I may sound crazy, but...
I think the world was made to bring you to me
I was meant to be your girl

For eternity i made my mind up
And I can't believe I finally found ya
my one true love
I'm living De Ja Vu

You've been in my dreams so many times
I can't believe this is my life now
You're my true love
I'm living De Ja Vu

It's crazy(It's crazy)
I'm livin' De Ja Vu

For eternity i made my mind up
And I can't believe I finally found ya
my one true love
I'm living De Ja Vu
You've been in my dreams so many times
I can't believe this is my life now
You're my true love
I'm living De Ja Vu

For eternity i made my mind up
And I can't believe I finally found ya
my one true love
I'm living De Ja Vu
You've been in my dreams so many times
I can't believe this is my life now
You're my true love
I'm living De Ja Vu
