How could you lead me all this way
And then cause me so much pain?

After all of the days and all of the nights that we had shared
I coulda sworn that you would never do me the way you did
And after all of the plans and memories that we had made Never thought that you were capable of causing me so much pain

What was your reason? Boy, why?
Said you were in love with me? Why?
Oh, why? I cried so many nights
I tried to justify your actions
But it just ain't happening, no
I need to know, oh, oh, no
I can't believe

I can't believe that you hurt me
How could you say you love me like you say then cause
me such pain?
Oh, baby, please, can you tell me?
How could you lead me all this way and then cause me
so much pain?

After all of the talks we had about marriage and having kids
It seemed not likely to me that you'd ever pull something like this
And after all of those times I was there for you And all of those things that we'd been through
I hope she was worth it, babe
I really can't stand this pain

What was your reason? Boy, why?
Said you were in love with me? Why?
Oh, why? I cried so many nights
I tried to justify your actions
But it just ain't happening, no
I need to know where do we go?

I can't believe that you hurt me
How could you say you love me like you say then cause
me such pain?
Oh, baby, please, can you tell me?
How could you lead me all this way and then cause me
so much pain?

I can't believe that you hurt me
How could you say you love me like you say then cause
me such pain?
Oh, baby, please, can you tell me?
How could you lead me all this way and then cause me
so much pain?

Where?
Why?
Why?
I thought we had something special
Can't worry 'bout yesterday
How could you say that you loved like you said that you did?

I can't believe that you hurt me
How could you say you love me like you say then cause
me such pain?
Oh, baby, please, can you tell me?
How could you lead me all this way and then cause me
so much pain?
