Nathalie where did you go
Your family they miss you so
They don't know what to do without you
Did you take a walk and did you go too far
Are you lost somewhere out in the dark
The waiting is so cruel

I hope somebody has your hand
And I pray you're somewhere safe
It's hard for me to understand
This crazy world today

I'm not the only one
Who knows you're gone
Today when I walked out my door
I won't be the girl I was before
You made a mark inside my heart
How could I be
I'm thinking about you... Nathalie
I'm thinking about you
Ooh... Nathalie

She was only five years old
Her story barely even told
Another mother lost her child today
Ooh... we shake our heads it makes no sense
And we mourn the loss of innocence
And silently we search for words to say

I hope somebody has your hand
And I pray you're somewhere safe
It's hard for me to understand
This crazy world today

I'm not the only one
Who knows you're gone
Ooh... today when I walked out my door
I won't be the girl I was before
You made a mark inside my heart
How could I be
I'm thinking about you... Nathalie
I'm thinking about you

Ooh... Nathalie

Ooh ooh...

Today when I walked out my door
I won't be the girl I was before
You made a mark inside my heart
Nathalie
