You pull me like the ocean draws a sailor from the shore

I see you

I touch you.

Leave me wanting more

Kiss my mouth.

Take me out as far as we can go

Move through me

Undo me and the buttons on my coat

Pull me down, say my name, love me love me

Take me now beneath the waves, love me love me

Thrill me, kill me, give me everything you've got

Even if it hurts me, love me without mercy

I don't need a savior now.

I wanna drown.

Lover rock me

Lover shock me

Fill me to my core

Give me what i'm wanting please don't tease me anymore

With your fingers

With your mouth

With your tongue warm and wet

Against my skin beneath my hips - take away my breath

Pull me down, say my name, love me love me

Take me now beneath the waves, love me love me

Thrill me, kill me, give me everything you've got

Even if it hurts me, love me without mercy

I don't need a savior now

I wanna drown.

I don't wanna play it safe, even if you think i should

Pull me down, say my name, love me love me

Take me now beneath the waves, love me love me

Thrill me, kill me, give me everything you've got
Even if it hurts me, love me without mercy
I don't need a savior now
I wanna drown
