Everyone keeps saying this is only a phase
I got so much on my mind I don't know what I should take to heart
Where's my heart?
Had too much fun in high school and in college the same
Never living up to my potential, trying to live life my way
What's my way?
I can't pretend that life is fair everyday
Or that faith comes easy
I'm wondering what it is you're so afraid to say
'Cause I'm not the only one
Who thinks so
I'm not the only one
Who thinks so
It's never ending; stop pretending you're not afraid
The human condition your ambition so quickly steals away, everyday

But God I know you're listening God I know you can see
All the things that war inside us all the things we're trying to believe
You got me on my knees
And I can't pretend that life is fair everyday
Or that faith comes easy
I'm wondering what it is you're so afraid to say
Looking in the eyes of the people passing me by
I know I'm not the only one who thinks so
But I'm caught between faith and a hard place
What's with the long face
'Cause I'm not the only one
Who thinks so
I'm not the only one
Who thinks so
