Oh honey why you got to be so mean?

Don't you

(Don't you remember me?)

Oh baby, baby

You and me, you and me, you and me

We build sandcastles in the Serengeti

(Don't you remember me)

You splashed my face with Nile water

Daughter of a diaspora

(Diaspora)

You named me, claimed me

(You named me)

(Do you remember me?)

Do you remember me?

(Do you remember me?)

(Do you remember me?)

(Do you remember me?)

Remember playing pinball right on 23rd street

(K I N G)

I was there I remember

When you got your first pair of sneaks

(Oh they are phat)

Converse I think

(Do you)

I remember you swore, you were so big and bad

You walked around like your mmm didn't stink

(You can't beat everybody)

But I was there always been there

I remember that it did, ooh it did

(How it does now, I'm sure)

I remember you lovin' me it was so beautiful

(Magical, wonderful)

I remember loving you so good, so good, so good

(Do you remember me?)

(Do you remember me?)

I mean, for real

(Do you remember me?)

Don't you remember those days
Way back when we spoke K Swahili
(Do you remember me?)
It was you and me
See, remember playing hide and go freak
(Do you remember me?)
I was that one you were born to seek
And I'm still here

(Do you remember me?)
Getting down, getting down
Getting down, getting down
Getting down, getting down

(Do you remember me?)
For you still
Getting down, getting down
Getting down, getting down
Getting down, getting down, for you
(Do you remember me?)
