Too much on my mind

Too much on my mind

Too much on my mind

Too much on my... La la la la la la la la la

Here I am thinking again

All lost in my brain

But I know I should get up and get out of it

I gotta keep moving

But here i am lost all up inside my brain

Can't stop thinking, reminiscing.

Can't stop. Can't let go.

But when I wake up,

and one day I will do it,

I have let you go

and everything I went through was beautiful

I have let you go

and everything I went through was beautiful

Maybe I, right now, can't see the forest full of trees

So lost behind hurt

But I'm trying everyday exponentially

To move forward

Do you know how it feels to be lost?
But when I wake up
Everything I went through would be beautiful
When I wake up
And I will wake up
It's gonna be beautiful
Down to to my left side (Last cry)
Feeling I could fly (Feeling I could fly)
All day, up high.
Sweeter than the sugar on a cinnamon treat
Or an ice cream
That was me
But I'm feeling like I'm in a nightmare
Fear of loving somebody, everywhere
Oh Lord, I need this confirmation, this affirmation
That when I wake up
When I wake up
Everything I went through will be beautiful
When I wake up
Everything I went through will be beautiful
Gotta wake up
Gotta wake up
Gotta wake up
Gotta wake up
