

Jill Sobule "Margaret"

Visit "Margaret" on MotoLyrics.com

She's gonna sing, you're gonna listen
One, one two three four

Margaret, back in junior high
Margaret, all yellow curled
She was the most popular girl
Margaret, she was beautiful
Margaret developed first
We all thought she had all the luck in the world
She never noticed me, what could I give her?
I knew someday I would have to forgive her
Ooo margaret, dear Margaret

Such a lucky girl
How could I ever forget, Margaret?

Meanwhile, ten years later
Margaret moved to West Hollywood
We all thought she could make it if anyone could
Margaret, she missed the reunion
Margaret, we never heard
What became of St. Mary's glamorous girl?
Until the day at the video center
A man held a tape with a girl on the cover
In bad lingerie on a Cadillac fender
Ooh Margaret, dear Margaret

Such a lucky girl
How could I ever forget Margaret?
Margaret Margaret Margaret

She never noticed me, what could I give her?
I knew someday I would have to forgive her
Ooo Margaret, dear Margaret

Such a lucky girl
Our St. Mary's girl
Such a lucky girl
How could I ever forget Margaret?

Visit Jill Sobule page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.
