While you were sleeping
Everything changed
Like a prisoner on his first day out
Everything changed

Fashions are strange
The sunlight is blinding
While you were hiding
Everything changed

While you were sleeping
I got along
As much as I missed you
I got along

Now that you're gone
Feel I've grown two inches
And while you were sleeping
Everything changed

Don't you know that you are losing me?
Wish that you could just
Wake up and see
You are losing me, oh

Fashions are strange
The sunlight is blinding
While you were hiding
Everything changed
