Every time I get that I'm so clear feeling
I wonder why I can't hold onto it forever
And Every time I get to whining
And every time I feel like crying
Every time I get that I'm so Clear Feeling
And

I remind myself, I'll end up fine
Oh I remind myself I'll end up fine

It's been a while since I fell into my bed
And threw the covers over my head and
Hoped the world would be gone when I came out
I guess I'm in a Depression drought and Rain never seemed so happy before
I want to stand in it till I cannot take anymore

It's been a while since I fell into my waterbed
And pulled the cover over my head and

I remind myself, I'll end up fine
Oh I remind myself I'll end up fine

Wait for me
I don't know what's happening to me
But I'll be back soon
I promise you
It's just a wave
A fit of something I can't escape
But I'll be back soon I promise you

Yeah I'll be back soon I promise you
And I remind myself, I'll end up fine
Oh I remind myself I'll end up fine
