I don't care about silly things
Cause all they do is clog my mind
And girl your love is all I need
To get me started feelin' fine
I get up watch the morning news
Think about what I wanna do
Got endless time just you and me
I don't get off on memories
What I am is what you see
Live it up, cause baby I found the truth
Chorus:
I said hey that's the way it goes
Open up just let it flow
Cause girl I know what you need
I said hey - that's the way it goes
You rock my very soul
And I think you makin' me believe
All I need is your tenderness
You send shivers down my spine
Let's make the best of it
Who cares about the rest of it
Today this love is yours and mine
We'll wake up in the afternoon
Count the craters on the moon
Do anything we want to do
Chorus
And I don't know what I want to remember
Before you shone your light on me
But this love is gonna change our life forever
The heart is real
The heart is real
