So you tell me 'bout your feelings,
and I tell you about mine
You point at the sun,
but I can't make it shine
Turn back the time this evening,
I won't let you go

You're about to kiss me, my friends pull me away
I can hear them laughin' but I don't care what they say
Maybe if we kiss tonight, then I won't let you go

Chorus:

I Let the last chance slip away (2x)
You let the last chance slip away (2x)

I see you leave the party, without saying goodbye
This time I won't follow I hope this time I won't die
To show the one who's leaving, I will have to let you go

Chorus repeat

So you told me 'bout your feelings, and I told you about mine
Pointing at the sun, I did not make it shine
No one can turn back the time but I can't let you go

You let the last chance slip away (9x)
