I knew a girl who was broken hearted over a boy who could not share his feelings she really loved him

if there's a lesson to be learned
it's a hard one to take.
once it falls apart it's so hard to unbreak so don't you ever make that mistake tell here you love here.

how much you love her
don't turn away
don't be affraid
tell her you love her time marches on and the boy grew older every day wandering if he told her something would it be different

once it falls apart it's so hard to unbrea
so don't you ever make that mistake

so tell her you love her
how much you love her

oh tell her you love her
how much you love her
just tell her you love her
