I don't care about silly things Cause all they do is compremind And girl your love is all i need to get me started feeling fine.. yeah

I get up watch the morning news think about what i wanna do got endless time just being with you

I dont get up for memories
what i am is what you see live it up, cause baby i found the truth

I said Hey that's the way it goes
Open up, just let it flow
Cause girl I know what you need
I said hey thats the way it goes
You rock my very soul and I thank you for making me believe

All i need is your tenderness Using shivers down my spine Lets make the best of it who cares about the rest off it today this love is yours and mine

We wake up in the afternoon Got our plans on the moon
DO anything we want to do

I dont get up for memories
What i am is what you see
Live it up
Cause baby i found the truth

I said hey thats the way it goes
Open up just let if flow
Cause girl i know what you need
I said hey thats the way it goes
You rock my very soul

And i thank you for making me believe

And I dont know what i want to remember For shining you light on me But this love is gonna change her life forever the heart is real, the heart is reaaaallll

I said Hey that's the way it goes
Open up, just let it flow
Cause girl I know what you need - ooohww
I said hey thats the way it goes
You rock my very soul
and I thank you for making me believe

I said Hey girl that's the way it goes
Open up, just let it flow
Cause girl I knooooooow what you need.. yeah
I said hey thats the way it goes
You rock my very soul

Hey that's the way it goes just let it flow what you need I said hey girl the way it goes the way it goes You rock my very soul for making me believe
