Have you ever loved someone
So much you waited just too long
To tell them what you're feeling

Maybe I was just too proud
To say I love you right out loud
Found the words I must believe in

On this night that holds us both within
Set me free or let me live again

Chorus:
It's you and me tonight
With these feelings we can't fight
Just two people lost but maybe found together

And if we make it through
And tomorrow find the truth
You know I will fall
I will risk it all
Just for you

Got to find a way somehow
'Caus all we have is here and now
It can't wait until tomorrow

If the morning comes too soon
Run away and chase the moon
Like a dream that you must follow

If you go I won't be in your way
In my eyes is all I have to say

Chorus
It's you and me tonight
With these feelings we can't fight
Just two people lost but maybe found together

And if we make it through
And tomorrow find the truth
You know I will fall

I will risk it all
Just for you

Never realized that I waited just too long
Now I recognize that was you all along

Chorus
It's you and me tonight
With these feelings we can't fight
Just two people lost but maybe found together

And if we make it through
And tomorrow find the truth
You know I will fall
I will risk it all

It's you and me tonight
With these feelings we can't fight
Just two people lost but maybe found together

If we make it through
And tomorrow find the truth
You know I will fall
I will risk it all
Just for you
