We went through all these years together.
But don't you think now is the time
To sort things out before it's too late
It took a minute to change the weather
You broke the rulez you were out of line
You threw my heart into the shade
Can't face it again
Can't take it again
Not again

Chorus
You took my life into your hands
And turned it upside down
When everything looked so fine
To me it just doesn't make sense
I'm rooted to the ground
I gotta pay the fine

The road ahead is paved with teardrops
Gotta wipe to lay down the lines
And be aware of what's to come
It's gonna take a whole lot of time though
To turn a shattered life back into new
I sure did change my point of view
Can;t face it again
Can't take it again
Not again.

Chorus

I wonder why I didn't see you disappear
I didn't speak out loud to you I had this fear
Turned and turned around to see
How I wanted it to be
I wonder if it's ever gonna be the same
If I will be the one who's gonna lose the game
Tried to figure out the love that you lay on me

Chorus:
You took my heart into your hands
And turned it upside down

Now there's nothing left to defend
To me it just doesn't make sense
I've seen it all before
And now I'm wondering
Who's gonna write the end.
