you're all i have
you're all i have
it's an up hill climb and still don't know why what can we do about this l0ve?
does it questioning your world?
and again another day not a word is right to say how can i loose my foolish hopes in you?
sometimes i don't know why it keeps on shiering down my spine mabey. i'm going ou of my minde chorus:

wheter you're right Or wrong good or better, does it matter?
wheter you're right or wrong
worse then ever , comes together
you're all i have nothing in the wordl takes us ther

it's a damn cold shame
how you play these game do you need some more attention? will we choose a new direction?
i can see it in your eyes you're losing appetite it's the reflection of my thoughts to you
it keeps on shivering down my spine mabey. i'm going ou of minde chorus (2Ã—)
