Take these tears, put 'em in a bottle
Don't let these tears I cry be in vain
Take these tears, keep them up in heaven
Water my life with tears like rain

Hear me, hear my words unspoken
Restore my faith in hopin'
Hear me, I am feeling broken
I am broken open

Take this life, turn it into something
I'm afraid it's just wasting time
Turn this life the sun has ripened, grow it slowly on the vine
Turn my tears into wine

Hear me, hear my words unspoken
Restore my faith in hopin'
Hear me, I am feeling broken
But I am broken open

Turn my tears into wine
Turn these tears into wine
All that's left of me are traces Make me stronger in my broken places

Hear me, hear my words unspoken
Restore my faith in hopin'
Hear me, I am feeling broken
And I am broken open

Turn these tears into wine
Turn my tears into wine, hear me
