Baby, there's a time for rain
And the blue skies that will come
There's a time for us
To be kissed on by the sun

There's a time for leaves
To turn and colors run
But the weather, my heart longs for
Has to be my favorite one

When it snows, you and I hideaway
Anywhere that the cold wind blows
Winter pearls and diamonds fall down
But what matters to me the most

Is how I fall in love with you
Everytime I pull you close
Oh, baby, that's why
Why I love it when it snows

No wonder this wonderland
Is healing to the heart
This world gives us too many ways
To live our lives apart

There's a time for seasons
To change and bring the sun
But the weather, my heart longs for
Has to be my favorite one

When it snows, you and I hideaway
Anywhere that the cold wind blows
Winter pearls and diamonds fall down
But what matters to me the most

Is how I fall in love with you
Everytime I pull you close
Oh, baby, that's why
Why I love it when it snows

But the weather, my heart longs for
Has to be my favorite one

When it snows, you and I hideaway
Anywhere that the cold wind blows
Winter pearls and diamonds fall down
But what matters to me the most

Is how I fall in love with you
Everytime I pull you close
Oh, baby, that's why
Why I love it when it snows

I can feel you and I need you
Now it's cold outside as I hold you
I can feel you and I need no other love

I can feel you and I need you
Now it's cold outside as I hold you
I can feel you and I need no other love

I can feel you and I need you
Now it's cold outside as I hold you
I can feel you and I need no other love
