

Jim Byrnes "Still Stuck On You"

Visit "Still Stuck On You" on MotoLyrics.com

Been three days, maybe a week
Rain falling down in big black sheets
It's been a while since I've seen your face
Everything seems so out of place
Something borrowed something blue
Is that what my heart means to you?
Can't be friends, there's no other
Won't be satisfied till we're lovers
And I'm still stuck on you
Don't need a reason to bring you back
in my arms again
You've got a back door personality
Around the back is where the lion sleeps Knock on you front door, you're mild and you're meek
Run around the back you just won't let me be Can't we be friends, there's no other
Won't be satisfied till we're lovers
And I'm still stuck on you can't find the strength to put you in my past still stuck on you
Don't need a reason to bring you back
in my arms again
I can't go on, pretending it's right
And knowing it's wrong
Can't be friends, there's no other
Won't be satisfied till we're lovers
And I'm still stuck on you
Can't find the strength to put you in my past
Still Stuck on you
Don't need a reason to bring you back

Visit Jim Byrnes page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.