I can't even tell if the sun is out
But I see you standing beside me
I see you crying because you don't think that
You can never find your way home
I can tell you it will be alright
Just stay with meeeeeee.....

I will lead you through the dark
We'll never be torn apart
Stick with me cause you have my heart
I'm following the sparkling stars
Cause I can see them clearly
Because true love is in my eyes
Just look into my eyes and you know
That we'll escape the dark

We're going into the world (into the world)
What a fascination
It's not really that bad
Once you know where you're going
So keep holding on to me
I promise you we'll make it (make it)

I will lead you through the dark
We'll never be torn apart
Stick with me cause you have my heart
I'm following the sparkling stars
Cause I can see them clearly
Because true love is in my eyes
Just look into my eyes and you know
That we'll escape the dark

Follow me inside and outside
I will show you the way
Cause I don't feel afraid
We may live in the dark
But that doesn't mean we won't be together
Cause I'm with you
Yoooooooouuuuuu

I will lead you through the dark

We'll never be torn apart
Stick with me cause you have my heart
I'm following the sparkling stars
Cause I can see them clearly
Because true love is in my eyes
Just look into my eyes and you know
That we'll escape the

We'll escape from the dark
Darkness can't separate us
I got you and you got me
Let's follow the stars
I want to see them more clearly
You're the reason why that
There is love in my eyes
And together, we'll escape the dark
